
Diploma of Project Management BSB51407

Description

This qualification reflects the role of individuals who possess a sound theoretical knowledge base and use a range of specialised, technical or managerial competencies to plan, carry out and evaluate their own work and/or the work of a team.

Job roles and titles vary across different industry sectors. Possible job titles relevant to this qualification include: Project Leader; Project Management Facilitator; Project or Program Administrator.

Qualification Pathways

There are no prerequisite requirements for individual units of competency.

Candidates may enter into the qualification through a number of entry points demonstrating potential to undertake vocational education and training at certificate level, including:

- after achieving the BSB41507 Certificate IV in Project Management or other relevant qualification/s OR
- providing evidence of competency in the majority of units required for the BSB41507 Certificate IV in Project Management or other relevant qualification/s OR
- with extensive vocational experience in project roles where they may have had some limited responsibility for the output of others, and without a formal project management qualification.

After achieving the BSB51407 Diploma of Project Management, candidates may undertake the BSB60707 Advanced Diploma of Project Management, a qualification involving the application of high level project and managerial skills, or a range of other Advanced Diploma qualifications.

Qualification Rules

9 Core Units

Training & Recognition of Current Competencies (RCC)

Much of the training is delivered on-the-job through reading, interacting with colleagues and completing useful project work. You only need to attend off-the-job training if a competency cannot be acquired at the workplace. You may already have many of the skills required to qualify for this qualification. There is no need to be trained in things you can already do. NDA will assess current skills and give recognition for relevant competencies.
